

Public Notice

RUTGERS

The Rutgers University Police Department is scheduled for an on-site assessment as part of a program to achieve re-accreditation by verifying it meets professional standards in four basic areas:

- policy and procedures
- administration
- operations
- support services

Employees and members of the community are invited to a public information session to share comments regarding the RUPD's ability to meet the above standards. Those unable to attend may call the Assessment Team directly or write in to the Program Manager.

For a copy of the standards contact:
Deputy Chief of University Police Michael Rein
(848) 932-4930 or michael.rein@rutgers.edu
