

RU Up for the CHALLENGE?

If you are a problem solver with strong communication skills who believes that Community Policing is every Officer's responsibility, we invite you to apply for a challenging career as a Police Officer with the internationally accredited Rutgers Police Department.

RUPD has headquarters in New Brunswick, Camden and Newark operating around the clock, everyday of the year. Our department serves a diverse academic community of more than 58,000 faculty, students and staff on seven campuses in eight separate municipalities.

If you think you are up for the challenge, apply now at

RUPD.rutgers.edu

RUTGERS
THE STATE UNIVERSITY
OF NEW JERSEY

JOINING THE RUPD

OVERVIEW

Our patrols are conducted by foot, car, bicycle, motorcycle and all terrain vehicles. Rutgers Officers utilize state-of-the-art technologies and work a variety of assignments, from Division 1 sporting events to major concerts. Rutgers is committed to ensuring the safety of the University community and works in conjunction with federal, state and local agencies to continuously test its emergency response capabilities by conducting large scale drills.

SALARY

Base salary of $42,812 upon completion of field training.

BENEFITS PACKAGE

- State medical, dental and vision benefits
- Police and fire pension
- Tuition remission for employees and their children
- Tax deferral plans
- Paid time off and much more

REQUIREMENTS

- Must be a US citizen;
- have a valid New Jersey Drivers License;
- have a high school or vocational school education, or equivalent (applicants with a college degree or NJ PTC certification are preferred);
- have excellent verbal and written communication skills;
- be physically fit and satisfactorily complete an interview with the Police Review Board, a pre-employment medical examination (which includes drug screening), and consultation with a psychologist;
- satisfactorily complete PTC certification;
- pass a background check and be approved for police commissioning by a Commissioning Review Board;
- have no criminal convictions; and
- successfully complete a 12 week field training program.

HOW TO APPLY

Interested candidates who meet the above requirements are encouraged to apply online at rupd.rutgers.edu/employment.shtml.

